Chairman of Democratic Committee Talks of Sheldon's Corporation Connections.

OFFICER IN SEVENTEEN.

Mack Says Odell Refused to Let Him Run for Lieutenant-Governor for This Reason.

Chairman Mack of the National Democratic Committee gave out a statement to-day which was prefaced by a long list of the corporation connections of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the National Republican Committee. The statement of Chairman Mack was

"The trust and corporation affiliations of Mr. Sheldon make interesting reading, in view of the recent developments in the national campaign. I wish to recall in this connection that. because of these various associations of his, Gov. Odell, in 1902, refused to permit his party leaders to put Mr. Sheldon in nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. Gov. Odell at that time stated that he would not accept the nomination for head of the State ticket if Sheldon was to be his running mate.
"But while the Republican party has refused to put up Mr. Sheldon as a candidate for public office in this State it has for the dientical reasons which prompted this refusal selected him as prompted this refusal selected him as the collector of its campaign fund.

"It is not denied that most of the corporations with which he is identified are capitalized for millions. How much of their stock is of the liquid variety is not known. Yet Mr. Roosevelt has defended him and has not demanded his resignation while Mr. Du Pont has been invited to step down and out. Yet Mr. Du Pont was only connected with one corporation, while Mr. Sheldon is intimately associated with no less than seventeen prominent financial concerns.

"One of these, the Bethlehem Steel Company, does not employ union iabor at present and has for sixteen years opposed the organization of its employees. Mr. Sheldon is a director of this company. He is also director and treasurer of the North American Company, which is capitalized for $30,000,000 and which is known as the mysicry of Wall Street Only a few years back he was associated with the Whiskey Trust. A glance at his connections with these various concerns will explain tersely the reason for his present employment. Further comment on my part is not needed."

Neither Congressman Fessett nor any of the leading members of the Chemung County Republican organization were on hand to greet the Governor.

At Hornell, however, to which the Governor went from here, he was given a big welcome. The Republican Club, several hundred strong, with two bands, headed the procession that marched through the principal streets. The Governor made a brief address to the railroad men at the station, and then was driven to Seneca Rink, where the principal meeting of the day was held. For an hour he spoke to one of the biggest gatherings of voters ever held in Hornell.

many dark green hats were turned out that the shade had to stand. After the First Gentleman of Europe turned out in his stagnant green hat all the imperial household followed suit. Being a shrewd ruler, the king at once paironized home industries, threw away the Alpine top-piece and bought a dozen or two dark ones from a West End hatter.

Of course there are variations of the original style. Some turn up at the brim and some turn down. Some do both. Some bear aloft stingy little rosettes. You can have your pick. The hatters are turning out "rah-rah!" varieties and sedate patterns for elderly bank presidents. There are peanut sizes and sombrero type.

An enterprising hatter is producing a specimen with the shroud-veil band effect of Nile green. It is said that we may look for new designs and colors in the rosettes that go with the new hats, also that feathers may be stuck in them to suit the fancy of the wearer. As usually occurs when anything new tim men's wear appears here, the actors were the first to wear them. It gave Then the other denizers of the Rialto district took them up to look like the actors. Staider citizens hung back to watch the effect. Some of the actor folk went in for such weird patterns that they queered the fashion for a while, but when Eighth and Third avenues finally stood for the innovation without riot the general public went in and bought.

The new hats are not pretty, but then that is want men like, the ugliest created hats always being the most popular, man being so prodigiously modest about enhancing his natural beauty.
